A WORLD IN DESPERATE NEED OF A DIVINE INTERRUPTION

When we read in the news that:

- Bomb brings down Russian passenger jet killing 224 people
- Terrorism in Paris kills 129 innocent civilians
- 125,000 Iraqi Christians forced to flee ISIS
- 21 Coptic Christians beheaded by ISIS
- Rape, and Cannibalism mark South Sudan's new war
- 2,000 migrants drown trying to reach Europe...

We know that we are in need of a divine interruption.

Let us be mindful of His promises:

“God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. "Selah" There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells. God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day. Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall; he lifts his voice, the earth melts. The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.” Psalm 46: 1-7.

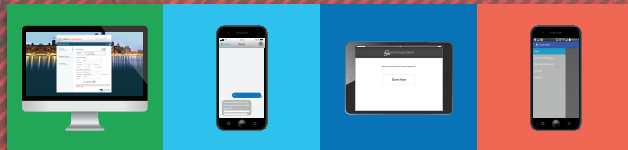

This Christmas, expect a divine interruption. Abraham experienced a divine interruption and so did Elijah. Mary and Joseph also experienced divine interruptions.

God wants to interrupt our lives – the question is will we let Him? I want to encourage our friends and partners all over the world - God is not done. God has not abdicated. God is still at work. God can intervene in your life this Christmas. Will you allow Him to do so? Are you available to have your life divinely interrupted this Christmas? If you are, God can use you to bless and be a blessing to those around you and to change the course of history for your family, your church, your community, city or nation. Let God accomplish His work in you this Christmas.

Blessings,

Gabriella Van Breda
Executive Director

Let Love Come Down

Join World Impact Network in letting God's love come down this Christmas. WIN will be providing 'love packages' for grandparents caring for children whose parents are incarcerated. We want others to experience a divine interruption. We want to bless them with a 'love package.' Something special to make them feel special. I know by experience through a member of our congregation the hardship that goes along with a grandparent 'parenting' a child, especially when the grandparent is living in poverty.

This Christmas be part of contributing $20, $50 or $100 towards these love packages which will contain specialty items such as a soft comfort blanket, hot cocoa, scented candles, chocolates, Christmas coffee mug, warm socks for the whole family and other items that will make a grandparent feel special. These would normally not be affordable items for these grandparents at Christmastime. Christmas is about feeling special. Let us make this a special Christmas for 'parenting' grandparents.

Let's not just talk about blessing others, let's make it happen.

Thank you for your support. All contributions are tax deductible and should be designated for 'love packages.'

If you hope to receive something nice this Christmas, blessing others will be the best gift you can get.

How you can participate:

- Donate unwrapped gifts
- Help co-ordinate items and make up 'love packages':
